MERCHANDISE UP TO A STANDARD

FALL SHOWING Women's Suits

AT PRICES THAT ARE WELL WORTH CONSIDERATION

Of late, a closer attention is given to niceties of finish. The new and intricate weaves accomplished by the textile inventors demand the accompaniment of perfect detail in making. Our suits were never so well lined, so carefully tailored; nor have they ever come so close to the custom-made garment. All the minute points, such as piped buttonholes, crow feet and stitching, as well as the high grade of the fur adornment, help to maintain the standard of our unusual value.

A SUIT OF OXFORD MELTON AT $40

sketched above on right, has youthful lines and modish cut. It is silk lined and adorned with horn buttons. This same model is featured in Faisan and brown chevrons. The coat is high necked with reversible collar.

A SMART SUIT IN OXFORD AT $45

A smart suit (sketched in lower right), in oxford, has a convertible collar, hand-made button holes, and a lining of soft silk. The skirt is provided with pockets. This style is also shown in silverstone. There are also three styles in broadcloth at this price.

NEW TINSELTONE SUITS AT $55 TO $75

The weave that is produced by an "exceptional blending of threads" is featured in a suit that bears all the marks of good tailoring, such as the notched collar, piped button holes, natty pockets, good stitching. The coat is warmly interlined. Other models are shown in Tinseltone. The suit sketched above on the left is of Tinseltone and priced at $67.50.

HIGHER PRICED SUITS $85 TO $450

Luxurious fur-trimmed suits in the newest materials, such as Bolivia, Chenille, Evara, Pech Ploom and Duretyne. All are lined with fancy Pussy Willows.

DE VALERA POINTS OUT IRELAND'S STRATEGICAL POSITION ON MAP

The world and note the position of Ireland upon it. There it stands, a distant island. No difficulty about its boundaries, the ocean has been to that.

Look at it. It is no part of Britain; it is farther removed from Britain than Belgium is from France or Germany; farther removed than Holland from Germany; farther removed than Switzerland from France, Germany, Austria or Italy; farther removed from Britain than Canada is from the U. S. A.

The geographical positions of these several countries are never argued as reasons why the people of one of these countries should have a right to extend its power over the people of the adjacent country, and yet it is claimed that the geographical position of Ireland deserves Ireland in some irrevocable way as a part of the British political system and gives England some natural right over Ireland, superior to the right of the Irish people themselves to own it or to govern it.

Do Americans admit this pan-Briton government?

Heligoland of the Atlantic

There it is, this island outpost of Europe towards the west. The "Heligoland of the Atlantic," as the English Navy League has called it—England's Heligoland, he noted—lying across all the principal trade routes between Europe and the great American continent—a mighty gateway fortress, giving to the power which commands it effective control of the ocean in peace and in war.

One does not need a chart of ocean traffic to realize how much of the sea borne trade of the world must pass by the coasts of Ireland. (It has been estimated at 80%.) Not a ship can enter any harbor in the west of Britain, any harbor in the north of France, or in Holland, or in Belgium, in the Scandinavian countries or in the northern coast of Russia no matter what harbor it starts from, whether it be a harbor on the American continent, from Cape Horn to Grant Land, or from Africa, India, China, Australia, but must pass with its freight close to the Irish shores and within easy striking distance of war craft issuing from the Irish harbors.

With these harbors in her possession and a fleet of submarines at her disposal, England could in a short space strangle the commerce of the world.

By a sudden declaration of war, England could seize and convert to her own use a vast tonnage of shipping, before a state of war was realized by her enemy.

The Navy League of England, in its memorandum on the strategic importance of Ireland, puts it in this way:

"The trade of Europe with Canada, the United States, the West Indies, the Gulf of Mexico, the Panama Canal, the Caribbean Sea, all the republics of South America, all the states of the Australian Commonwealth, New Zealand, China, Japan, Russia in the Pacific, India, Ceylon and Africa, are dependent directly upon the control of Irish seaports and the communications behind them."

Quotes Navy League Memorandum

There is another paragraph in this English Navy League memorandum which it will not be irrelevant to quote also:

"The British people before the war were mistaken in regard to Queenstown, Bantry Bay, Valentia, and Lough Swilly as merely British interests. Ireland has eighteen harbors; five of them are first class harbors. The best of them face the Atlantic Ocean, which floats the trade of the world. Friendly naval control of Irish harbors by free nations is essential to the freedom of the world. The ocean of the air, the surface of the sea and under water attack or defense will be controlled, not from Portsmouth in Hampshire or from Plymouth in Devonshire, or from Lowestoft in Suffolk, or from Liverpool in the Cromarty Firth, but from Irish western ports. Strategically invaluable the Irish ports and communications cannot be suffered to blackmail free nations."

But who "blackmail" the nations free or unfree by the possession of the Irish ports? It is important for Americans to answer this question for themselves. England's commercial rivals have met a uniform fate in the past. How? It is well Americans should seek history for the answer, and then ask themselves what country is England's greatest rival now? And let them not forget that England also holds Gibraltar, Malta, Port Said, Suez, Aden, Zanzibar, Cape Town, Colombo, Singapore, Hong Kong, the Falkland Islands, the Southwestern Pacific, with a fleet ordered by its Parliament to equal any two others, plus 10%—England holds Canada.

Look at the map once more. Note that Ireland is America's nearest European neighbor, some three days' journey away by sea—only sixteen or twenty hours more by air. Soon probably it will only be ten.

See the contour of Ireland's coast line. Note the natural bays and harbors, eighteen of them, as the English Navy League says, excellent harbors, five first-class, on a par with the best in the world. These harbors should be full of shipping. By their position they should be America's chief distributing centres for Europe. Why are they not?

Channels and Harbors Famous

These channels and harbors were famous among the merchants even of the ancient world.

The Romans coveted these "harbors well known to all the continents."

SERVICE MEN

REMEMBER—You saved Massachusetts two billion dollars in taxes by winning the war quickly in 1918 instead of in 1920, as predicted. You deserve your gratitude plus $5.00 a day back pay for each day you were in the service. To win this $5.00 a day back pay each of you must get your friends to pull on next Tuesday and request them to vote for me for Governor. If I am beaten Tuesday, you will never get another cent for your services. Get into it and back me up.

A tax will be placed upon large income to raise this money to pay you. I shall not pay upon it. I have brought this fight for $5.00 a day for you up to the polls—IT IS NOW FOR YOU TO SAY WHETHER YOU GET IT OR NOT.

I believe also in state employment for the blind and crippled; an old-age pension; a "rip-off" labor bill for a forty-four-hour week for labor, including farmers, policemen, clerks, etc., and extra pay for overtime; public ownership of the railroads and street railways, and a fire-cut care; instant removal of Police Commissioner Curtis.

I oppose the League of Nations. Mr. Long favors it. Organize in your own precinct for September 22. Study this notice. Cut it out and pass it along. Be determined. Don't be misled by sleazy-hour statements of my millionaire opponents and their interested agents. Mr. Long could get nothing in the Republican party. Both Mr. Long and Mr. Foss are Republicans attempting to save a Democratic coat. Can Democrats depend upon them in this crisis? I have been elected as a Democrat to the Legislature and to Congress.

SERVICE MEN AND CITIZENS—AWAKE! Don't let these causes fall. Hustle today. You can't win by sitting still or by dividing your votes.

Mr. Long—You make shoes. Why didn't you lessen your profits on them?

Mr. Foss—Why did you increase your rents in Watertown?

Ask for a Democratic ballot.

Signed, FREDERICK S. DEITRICK.

Regular Democratic Candidate for Governor, 1886 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge.

mental traders from the frequency of commerce and merchants"—but never felt sure enough of their ground to dare to attack.

The Danes later coveted them and established settlements on the water-side, tightening their grip systematically until they were finally beaten and Northern Europe no less than Ireland freed by the great Irish.

The Norman Rufus gazed across the channel and dreamt of a great dream of conquest. He saw:

"A land very rich in plunder, and famed for the good temperature of the air, the fruitfulness of the soil, the pleasant and commodious seats for habitation, and safe and large ports and havens lying open for traffic."

"For the conquest of that land I will gather together all the ships of my kingdom and will make of them a bridge to cross over."

In mediæval times there was extensive Irish trade with France, Spain and Italy, even as far north as Naples. Big continental trading societies had their agents in Ireland and Irish merchants their agents on the continent. See Mrs. J. R. Green's Reveries if you want the proof.

Galway Second Only to London

As late as a couple of centuries ago Galway was a mart second only to the port of London. Merchandise from all Europe, even from the Mediterranean and distant Levant, was freely exchanged there.

It is as you have noticed, the nearest port in Europe to America. And in Galway today the products of the United States would be competing with many of the products of Britain did Britain not hold Ireland for herself as a selfish monopoly, searing ships away from the Irish harbors, which she retains solely as a rendezvous for her navies; they can concentrate in their safety, and issue forth to strangle the commerce of any rival that it may be to England's interest to attack.

The world should not allow England to control Ireland. Not only because England has no right in Ireland, seeing that Ireland should belong to the Irish people, but because her control of Ireland gives England control of the Irish harbors. With her immense navy England in control of these harbors is a menace to the freedom of the world.

If the seas are to be free, no great power, least of all England, should be allowed possession of the keys by which they are controlled.

With a great power in control of these keys, League of Nations or no League of Nations, freedom for others will only be by sufferance.

The proposed covenant of the League of Nations will not make the seas free. The neutralizing of the strategic keys and the giving over of them to the control of the people to whom they immediately belong, under international guarantees, would in law and in fact.

League Will Not Free Seas

With England in control of Ireland the Atlantic Ocean is free only by England's permission and as America knows this permission she has never hesitated to revoke when her interest or her purposes suggested it.

With the Irish harbors permanently neutralized under international guarantees and immediately held in trust for the world—by a nation too small to be a menace, too small to have imperialistic ambitions—this great ocean where the trade of the world concentrates would be free in reality and by right and for all.

GOVERNMENT TO LEASE MANY ARMY TERMINALS

Washington, Sept. 16.—The War Department, acting on recommendation of a special committee recently appointed, will lease many of the quartermaster storehouse terminals erected during the war. Under existing legislation these terminals could be leased for a term only five years. The Secretary will ask Congress to increase the limit to 25 years.

POSLAM ENDS SKIN SORENESS AND ERUPTIONS

Poslam quickly and conveniently relieves itching and burning skin, the active help you need to be rid of Pimples, to heal Eczema, to drive away Itches, Redness and to clear inflamed complexion. To avoid further suffering try Poslam at once. A splendid test is to apply it to a small affected skin area at night and in the morning look to see how inflammation has subsided, how improvement already shown. Sold everywhere. For free sample write to Emergency Laboratories, 243 West 4th St., New York City.

Use your skin to its best advantage. Take your daily use of Poslam soap, medicated with Poslam.

If England's plea be true that she holds Ireland for her own safety, not for the external mastery over other peoples it gives her—let us hear her objection to the permanent neutralizing of Ireland with Ireland's own guarantee backed by the guarantee of the whole world that no other great rival power will be allowed to take possession of Ireland.

Is she averse to giving the necessary practical assurances that she is sincere in her profession of desiring a new world order? If membership of the League of Nations be no security for England unless England be allowed to grab all the hostages that force and strategic positions can give her, irrespective of the rights of other nations, for whom is the League of Nations a security?

FEAR OF FINANCIAL ON VERGE OF BANKRUPTCY

Berlin Bankers Look to U. S. to "Save Off Catastrophe That Would Shake Europe"

By KARL H. VON WIEGAND,
(Staff correspondent of the Boston American.)

Berlin, Sept. 16.—Germany is practically bankrupt; Germany is pulling at her financial andore and ready drifting toward bankruptcy. There is a strong possibility of her dragging France into the catastrophic whirlpool through her inability to meet the financial demands upon which the French are counting to save France.

That is the impression one gets here from the developments of the last few days. With the German mark falling day by day, and the fact that it is below four cents instead of the former rate of ten cents, the bankruptcy is openly discussed as being inevitable unless loans and credits are extended to Germany.

RELIEF ON AMERICAN AID.
Managers of the largest banks here still profess confidence in Germany's ability to avert a financial catastrophe which, they declare, would affect all Europe and more especially France. But with optimism it is coupled with the wish being fostered in the thought rather than of professional conviction.

They frankly state that their confidence is based almost wholly on outside help, coming from America. But even the hope of these men are becoming fainter daily. The confidence of American financiers on the subject of extending a helping hand to Germany has done much to show German confidence in the country's ability to pull itself up.

As arguing for American help, German bankers have pointed out that Germany cannot go bankrupt without shaking the entire European financial situation which, in turn, would inevitably affect America.

NEW VASTNESS MOREOVER.
Emphasis is laid on the facts that the new States of Poland and Czechoslovakia are without money, that Polish currency has practically no value in gold or silver and is at present lower in value than the German mark.

Leading bankers point out that the mark movement on the Bourse last week was indicative of the German people still having the utmost confidence in their own money and in Germany's ability to meet its obligations. They admit, admitting, however, that the mark movement was confined largely to purchases of foreign securities which have been skyrocketing.

It is further admitted that the fall of the mark will soon reach a point where it will create an automatic blockade of Germany through its inability to make further purchases in commodities and raw materials it needs.

THREAT-CUTTING TACTICS.
The situation is not bettered by threat-cutting tactics in attempting to get control of Germany's trade. With the exchange of goods falling in their favor the banks report that the French are buying large blocks of stocks of leading German industries.

On the other hand, some of the largest importers at Hamburg allege that the British are making threats to the effect that if the German importers insist on doing business with New York and not through London, the British will make it impossible for the Germans to get goods to New York.

The bankers view seriously, but other authorities regard with equanimity, sometimes even with amusement, the demand of the French Finance Minister for $100 millions to France as reparation or indemnity.

Two groups are indifferent toward the danger of bankruptcy. Indeed they almost welcome it. They are the conservative and the extreme radicals.

LAWRENCE CHILD IS KILLED BY AUTO.
Lawrence, Sept. 16.—Albert D. Lawrence, 44 years old, of No. 141 Madison street, was struck and killed by an automobile driven by Lester Ballou, near Lowell and Morton streets. The child's skull was fractured.

URGES TRUCE IN INDUSTRY TO CUT H. C. L.

New York, Sept. 16.—A truce between industry and organized labor until the cost of living goes down is the suggestion of William G. Mason, president of the National Association of Manufacturers. Mr. Mason will urge his plan at the coming White House Industrial Conference.

Under the plan advocated by Mr. Mason, capital and labor would bind themselves to refrain from lockouts or strikes. The agreement would last during the emergency, which could only be declared at the discretion of the President of the United States.

In an eloquent plea for an end to industrial strife, Mr. Mason declared that the epidemic of strikes and lockouts which recently has swept the United States as much as $100,000,000 a day in lost wages, rent, interest and wasted industrial resources.

He maintained that an economic emergency exists today, quite as much as during the war, and that only mutual understanding and tolerance on the part of capital and labor can save both from disaster.

The agreement suggested by President Mason would be completed in detail by representatives of capital and labor attending the White House conference. These representatives would be chosen by President Wilson. The agreement after it had been accepted by both sides would be presented to Congress as a joint resolution.

In the public interest and in the interest of the nation, Mr. Mason urged that no effort be made to force any agreement on the laboring man, but that the laboring man should be free to accept or reject the plan.

Organized employers would consent to not to strike or to lock out labor during the duration of the agreement. Labor would also renounce the doctrine that low production aids the workers and that labor unions are above court jurisdiction.

All disputes not yielding to other methods would be submitted to a national industrial adjustment board chosen jointly by capital, labor and President Wilson.

It has so far been impossible to secure any confirmation of the report. However, there is a belief here that Mr. Lansing may decide to leave official life before the end of the year because his health and his health is to be anxious to resume his private life. He is a member of the Senate and President Wilson has been strenuously doubtful.

As far as the designation of Mr. Lansing as Secretary of State, it is believed that he will not accept it.

SHERMAN SAYS WILSON IS 'KING OF QUITTERS'

By International News Service.

Washington, Sept. 16.—"The President denounces all who do not follow him as economic quitters, and scolding line workers, as traitors to their heads in the sand," Senator Sherman, Republican of Illinois, said in the Senate this afternoon.

"The President is the crowned king of quitters, without a rival in the Western Hemisphere," he continued.

"No man in public life ever quit sooner or later. His silence and inaction have been a constant reminder of his principles of yesterday are a shameful and swift as primal force of a fallen angel."

"He comes, lacking the ability and force of their chief, make a considerable exhibition of themselves in the subordinate role of being a vicious retreat."

"Why are we charged with desertion and poltroonery when we dare it is time to safeguard our own country?" inquired Sherman. "We must spend our substance to rearm and defend our country against the attacks of the enemy."

"The President is the crowned king of quitters, without a rival in the Western Hemisphere," he continued.

PRIZE GUERNSEY COW

IS SOLD FOR $1,200

North Attleboro, Sept. 15.—Twelve hundred dollars was the price paid for a six-year-old registered Guernsey cow just sold by Charles J. Whitely of Maple street to C. L. A. Whitney of Albany, N. Y.

The cow was raised on the farm of Arthur Tashman in South Weymouth and was awarded first prize at the cattle exhibit at the recent Boston Fair.

EVERYTHING NEW THAT COMES TO TOWN DESERVES ATTENTION

The announcement of something new stirs up curiosity.

Here is something that will appeal to the men of Boston, Mass.; to business men, to factory and store superintendents, to foremen, mechanics, clerks, in fact, every man in town.

The P & O is coming to town! What is the P & O?

P & O brings back memories of our boyhood days, when our elders used to say: "Mind your Ps and Qs, Bobby." It has a familiar sound.

The P & O that's coming to town is the new P & O Clothes Shop, to be opened at 293 Washington St., corner School, one flight up, about September 20th.

It is a new link in the chain of 32 clothes shops long recognized as pioneers of the Maker to Wearer idea of clothes distribution, and acknowledged as one of the few concerns in this country who actually make every garment they sell—and their methods of distributing their entire product, through their own stores at just a little above the wholesale price, has met with extreme favor all over the United States, from man in every walk of life, who truly appreciate supreme quality at minimum prices.

P & O Clothes sell at $25, $30 and $35, and it is a recognized fact that they are considered $10 cheaper than others sell equal quality for.

P stands for Price—O stands for Quality, and the trade mark figures of this unique store are emblematic of the name of the store.

Lowest in Price Highest in Quality

IRISH ROUSED BY TALKING OF GUNS

Speculation as to Purpose Fevish; Raids and Rioting Continue

By Universal Service.

Special Cable Dispatch.

Dublin, Sept. 15.—A significant development in the Irish situation has come in the landing of heavy guns at Cork. This purpose of these heavy guns, which are for the British army of occupation, is the subject of feverish speculation.

In Dublin, the Irish Volunteers in Strabane, including that of Dan Doherty, president, were raided by the police. Here in Dublin bullets were fired at the window of a book seller.

The raiding in the houses into the death of Detective Husey, slain in the local police barracks in that "death" was followed by unknown persons with murderous intent.

In raising the Irish Volunteers at Kilmorby, County Wick, the police seized quantities of dynamite, gasoline, flares, crucibles and other material.

"The victims of the military raid in Strabane, and the subsequent raids have filed claims for damages."

Documents Relating to American Firms Seized in Sinn Féin Raids

By Universal Service.

Special Cable Dispatch.

Dublin, Sept. 15.—The British, acting President of the Irish republic, in discussing the government's raids on the Sinn Féin, said:

"The significant part of the raids is that the police seized correspondence and documents relating to firms in America and foreign countries. On the average they find every six weeks but this is the first time they seized trade documents which have nothing to do with political questions."

Referring to Field Marshal French's suppression of the Irish Parliament, he said:

"We'll go ahead, as we represent the Sinn Féin of the Irish republic. It is strange that a British field marshal should be in the possession of the Sinn Féin in their own country."

"Sir Horace Plunkett made this statement."

"If anything justifies a protest of will in calling public attention to his properties it is the increased danger of our collapse."

"All informed Irishmen know my gloomy forecasts are being fulfilled by the Irish government."

"The Sinn Féin is suppressed though it is the product of an election order and carried out by the British Parliament. We cannot ignore the inevitable conclusion that will be drawn from its suppression. It will be assumed that this body is directly responsible for the murders. It is enough for me to state that I know the members of the Sinn Féin, who, if there were foundation for this suspicion, would have indignantly left long ago."

"The effect of this suppression is easy to forecast. There will be further transformation of moral sanction from the unconstitutional government of Dublin Castle to the unconstitutional government, in the Sinn Féin House. The more the government adds to the numbers and equipment of its army of occupation, the more its income is increased and the more it is contrasted before the world."

"I have one sorry hope left. Before long the Irish Sinn Féin will again haunt the British Parliament. Pray God it may be but last appearance there."

NEW HAVEN PAPERS ISSUED, DESPITE STRIKE

New Haven, Ct., Sept. 15.—There was no change in the attitude of the newspapers of this city today, according to the members of the Newspaper Guild Association.

SPENCER WELCOMING DANCE TO BE PUBLIC

Spencer, Sept. 15.—As the result of the many requests by the service men to allow the dance of the Welcome Home celebration be made public instead of being a private affair, the executive committee has voted to make it public.

The dance, which is to be held at the public house, will be open to all. It is the regular army of Camp Drum, Ill., has been invited to act as band of the parade.

STRIKE MAY CLOSE

MILLS SHOE FACTORY

Mills, Sept. 15.—Yampers in the J. M. Herman Shoe Company factory, manufacturers of army and navy shoes, have gone out and it looks as though within a day or so the entire plant may have to close as the result of the demands for a 25 cent increase in wages by the laborers and samplers.

The National City Company buys $10,000,000 of Firestone Preferred Stock

Firestone production is increasing so rapidly under demand from our 42,000 dealers that this additional capital was required

Although the two great Firestone plants at Akron are turning out daily 22,000 tires and 25,000 tubes, the demand from passenger car owners and truck operators continues to outstrip production.

Additional equipment already ordered for Plant No. 2, which is devoted exclusively to the manufacture of 3½ inch tires and tubes, will increase the output of this one manufacturing unit to 16,000 tires a day; while in the parent plant increased equipment for the manufacture of Cords is steadily building the output to its capacity of 20,000 tires daily, which will give a total capacity of 36,000 tires a day.

These equipment requirements and the need of a new steel plant that will double the output of Firestone Rims, are being met by an issue of $10,000,000 7% Preferred Stock, the entire amount being taken by The National City Company, the world's largest distributors of high grade securities.

On the financial page of this paper you will find an advertisement signed by The National City Company, which gives some interesting facts about the financial strength of the Firestone Company—a strength that is founded on twenty years of sound business policy and is an index of the character of the Company's products.

The National City Company is in the business of buying and distributing through its many correspondent offices the securities of corporations that are so well managed, so conservatively financed and whose products fill such a public need, that they measure up to its exacting standards of what should constitute a prime investment.

It is a high tribute to the quality of Firestone products and to the great dealer organization through which they are distributed that the demand for them should so increase as to require this additional capital to meet it. And it is a tribute to the character of the Firestone institution that the distribution of this entire $10,000,000 Preferred Stock issue should be undertaken by The National City Company.

See that you get the values in mileage and service that are responsible for this demand for Firestone Tires and this standing of the Company. Whatever type of tire you use, there is a Firestone to suit your needs—of a quality that assures you the economy of MOST MILES PER DOLLAR. Ask your dealer for Firestones. Have them put on every wheel of your car or truck.
